

DIRECTOR'S ORDER

Re: Director's Order that Reopens Fairs and Animal Exhibitions, with Exceptions

I, Stephanie McCloud, Director of the Ohio Department of Health (ODH), pursuant to the authority granted to me in R.C. 3701.13 to “make special orders...for preventing the spread of contagious or infectious diseases” Order the following to prevent the spread of COVID-19 into the State of Ohio:

- 1. Preamble: While COVID-19 made it impossible to hold fairs and animal exhibitions in the way we have in the past, they are of such importance to communities that every effort should be made to reopen them safely. The sacrifices and incredible efforts that Ohioans have undertaken, now make it possible to begin to lift the mandatory requirements and restrictions that were needed during the initial phase of the COVID-19 Pandemic. The adjustment of these orders is able to proceed based upon the facts and the science existing at this time in Ohio, however if the situation continues to improve, then more restrictions will be lifted, and if the situation deteriorates additional targeted restrictions will need to be made. While government can set the baseline, it should always be understood that these orders set forth the minimum acts that must be taken and if people do more than the minimum to act safely, it will benefit everyone.
- 2. Fairs and Animal Exhibitions to reopen. Fairs and animal exhibitions are permitted to reopen within the State so long as all safety standards are met and comply with the guidance in this Order and any other applicable Director of Health Orders. Fair boards and local communities should work closely with local boards of health. Businesses and operations shall continue to comply with Social Distancing Requirements as defined in this Order, including by maintaining six-foot social distancing for both employees and members of the public when possible, including, but not limited to, when anyone is standing in line. Each fair and animal exhibition shall designate an on-site compliance officer, for all hours of operation, whose responsibility is to ensure compliance with the Order. The designated individual shall be the contact person for the local health department and law enforcement agency which has jurisdiction.
- 3. Facial Coverings (Masks). Masks are required to be worn at all times, by all people on the fairgrounds unless they are actively eating or drinking. The Director's Order for Facial Coverings throughout the State of Ohio, signed July 23, 2020, remains in effect and must be followed at all fairs and animal exhibitions.
- 4. Social Distancing Requirements. For purposes of this Order, Social Distancing Requirements include maintaining at least six-foot social distancing from other individuals, washing hands with soap and water for at least twenty seconds as frequently as possible or using hand sanitizer, covering coughs or sneezes (into the sleeve or elbow, not hands), regularly cleaning high-touch surfaces, and not shaking hands. Where possible, designate with signage, tape, or by other means six-foot spacing for employees and customers in line to maintain appropriate distance. Have hand sanitizer and sanitizing products readily available for employees and customers.
