Information in this document has been archived and has since been replaced with more recent guidance.
Self-service food station customers should:
Use hand sanitizer before, and after, serving themselves.
Maintain at least 6 feet of social distancing from others while in line.

Also recommended:
Use disposable napkins, tissues, wax paper, etc. when handling serving utensils.