We will continue to work closely with the Food and Drug Administration throughout the recall process. Hubbard Feeds representatives are in direct communication with our customers to ensure the proper identification and removal of the impacted products.

To implement this recall, customers should take the following actions:

1. Immediately examine your inventory and quarantine any products subject to the recall.

2. Immediately discontinue use of the products subject to the recall, removing them from your animals' feeds.
3. Please return any affected product to the point of sale. All affected bags will be replaced, or a refund will be issued.

If customers have any questions, they should contact Hubbard Feeds Customer Service at 1-800-333-7929 (Monday – Friday, 7 a.m. – 6 p.m. Mountain Standard Time).
