RE: Recall Announcement (ODA/ODH) 2018-007

Café Spice GCT Inc., Recalls Ready-To-Eat Chicken Salad Products Due to Misbranding and an Undeclared Allergen

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18, 2018 – Café Spice GCT Inc., a New Windsor, N.Y. establishment, is recalling approximately 289 pounds of chicken salad products due to misbranding and an undeclared allergen, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS) announced today. The chicken salad was packaged with a chicken wrap label. The chicken salad contains milk, a known allergen, which is not declared on the chicken wraps' product labels.

The ready-to-eat chicken salads were produced on Jan. 12, 2018. The following products are subject to recall: [View Labels (PDF Only)]

- 15-oz. clamshell containers labeled "southwest-style chicken wrap" but containing southwest-style chicken salad products, with a "best by" date of "Jan. 20, 2018" on the labels.

The products subject to recall bear establishment number "EST. P-34641" inside the USDA mark of inspection. These items were shipped to retail locations nationwide.

The problem was discovered by a retail customer, who then notified the company. Following the company's internal investigation, they contacted FSIS.

There have been no confirmed reports of adverse reactions due to consumption of these products. Anyone concerned about an injury or illness should contact a healthcare provider.

Consumers who have purchased these products are urged not to consume them. These products should be thrown away or returned to the place of purchase.

FSIS routinely conducts recall effectiveness checks to verify recalling firms notify their customers of the recall and that steps are taken to make certain that the product is no longer available to consumers. When available, the retail distribution list(s) will be posted on the FSIS website at www.fsis.usda.gov/recalls.

Consumers and media with questions about the recall can contact Ms. Lucero Dedios, Café Spice's customer representative, at (845) 863-0910 or at orders@cafespice.com.
